ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAMS

The general objectives of adult education shall be the same as those of other levels of public education, namely to prepare individuals for full democratic citizenship, to provide them with means for economic improvement and cultural development, and to enrich their personal and family lives.

"Adult Education" refers to the school program and courses which are offered outside of the regular school day and not as an integral part of the elementary and secondary school programs. The extent of the program shall be determined by a balance among individual and community needs. The educational needs of the adult community residents may be met by the offering of activities in the following areas:

General Academic Education (High School Completion Courses)

Business Education

Technical and Industrial Education

Adult Homemaking

Special Interest

Adult Basic Education

No continuing curriculum shall be fixed, but activities shall be designed to meet the needs and wishes of individuals and of the community.
