ADVERTISING IN THE SCHOOLS

(Book Club Announcements)

Announcements from commercial book clubs may be made to students on the following conditions:

1. Classroom teachers may announce the availability of book club flyers to be picked up by interested students.
2. All sales premiums and other considerations offered by book clubs shall become the property of the school corporation. Those premiums and considerations that have classroom use shall be made available to interested teachers on an equitable basis.
3. Under no circumstances shall a premium, commission, rebate, or other consideration be retained by an individual employee of the school district.
